

Mr. Colby:

STAT 1. On Friday, 17 November, the Director will present the Career Intelligence Medal to [] -- 12:00 in the DCI Conference Room. You have been invited to attend. You are scheduled to meet [] K1 ✓ [] at the Cosmos Club at 12:30, but I assume you will wish to go to the ceremony first. 25X1

K1 2. The earliest date I could schedule a lunch for you with [] is Wednesday, 22 November. Do you wish to take him to the Cosmos Club? 25X1

STAT 3. A lunch with [] has been scheduled for 12:00 on Monday, 20 November, here at Headquarters.

STAT 4. [] advises that 17 students from FEI's Foreign Policy Seminar are visiting the Agency on Tuesday, 28 November, for briefings on Panama prior to their departure on a trip to Panama. (ONE will be giving an overall unclassified background briefing on the country and its problems.)

STAT asked if you would be willing to host a lunch for the group and give a 20-minute, unclassified, overall CIA briefing. Lunch would be scheduled for 12:30, and you could either give the briefing in the dining room (as you did the last time, so I'm told) or retire to the DCI Conference Room, ending at 1:30. (The group needs an hour on Panama, and they have to leave at about 3:00.) Would you like to host the lunch and give the briefing? If so, would you prefer to do the briefing in the dining room? ✓ Or go to the Conference Room? ST
